

Collective Worship Programme

Week Beginning :- 2nd March 2009

Assembly Theme: 'Working Together'

On This Week In History....

1969: Concorde flies for the first time

The supersonic airliner Concorde makes a "faultless" maiden flight.

1966: BBC tunes in to colour

The BBC announces plans to begin broadcasting television programmes in colour from next year.

1965: Police attack Alabama marchers

State troopers assault scores of demonstrators demanding better voting rights for blacks as they attempt to march from Selma to Montgomery.

Special Events:

'The Great Daffodil Appeal' (Cancer Awareness Week)
World Book Day – 5th March
International Women's Day – 8th March

Religious Festivals:

St. David's Day – 1st March (Christian)
St. Piran's Day – 5th March (Christian)
Mawlid – al – Nabi – 9th March (Islam)

Thought for the Week: - 'Individuals play the game, but teams beat the odds'