Examination:	Our AS and A Level History qualifications help you understand the significance of historical events, the role of individuals in history and the nature of change over time. Our qualifications will help you to gain a deeper understanding of the past through political, social, economic and cultural perspectives. The engaging topics available to you throughout the course will provide you with the knowledge and skills you require to succeed as AS and A Level historians. N.B. The AS and A Level are two separate qualifications. The specification is awaiting Ofqual accreditation in line with A Level Reform Consultation.
Is this the right course for me?	Yes if you studied History at GCSE and have a genuine interest in events from the past and how they have shaped the way we live today. You must be able to engage in debate and have a critical mind. A good historian will be able to communicate, organise information and be able to critically evaluate information. These skills would be ideal for a university degree or many areas of work and History was identified as the most respected A Level by top universities last year.
